METHODIST UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE GHANA (MUCG)

MOTTO:
Excellence Morality Service

The tenets of the Motto are highlighted below:

Excellence: MUCG is seeking to produce graduates who will eschew mediocrity and exhibit excellence in academic and other fields of endeavour.

Morality: MUCG is seeking to promote high moral standards and comportment among graduates. The MUCG graduate is expected to exhibit decency in dressing, speech, relationship etc.

Service: MUCG is seeking to ensure an all-round development of the student mentally, physically and spiritually so that graduates will be productively employed and actively involved in community service and religious activities.

Vision:
To promote and develop academic Excellence, Spirituality, Morality and Service within the Ghanaian society.

Mission:
To impart knowledge and skills in disciplines relevant to national development within the context of general global development and at the same time ensure an all-round development of the student mentally, physically and spiritually on the basis of Christian principles.
I have the pleasant duty to introduce Methodist University College Ghana as the best choice to foreign students desiring to pursue their University education in Ghana. The Methodist University College Ghana was established by the Methodist Church Ghana. It was granted accreditation by the Ghana Accreditation Board in August, 2000 and got Affiliated to the University of Ghana, Legon in October, 2002. The University College which started academic work on 20th November, 2000 with an initial student population of 213 currently has a student population of 5,000.

Very Reverend Professor S.K. Adjepong
The Vice Principal, Very Reverend Professor Joshua N. Kudadjie

Counting on Christian principles to lift the University College to higher heights.

The Dean of Students’ Affairs, Professor O.A.Y Jackson

Using tact and diplomacy in handling student affairs thus providing an enabling environment for both local and foreign students to strive for excellence in a Christian institution.

The Registrar, Mr. Justice Nii Aryeetey

Determined to transform the Administration of the University College and provide the most conducive atmosphere for academic pursuits.

HOW TO CONNECT FROM THE AIRPORT AND BUS TERMINALS TO MUCG

1. A Guide Map of Accra can be seen on pages 14 and 15 to help foreign students find their bearing on their first day of arrival in the city.

2. Foreign students arriving in the Country by air can connect to MUCG by two types of taxi right from the airport. These are:
   (a) LET Drive Radio Taxi Service
       Tel: 0302 – 251078/9
   (b) K.I.A Taxi Operators Union

3. Those arriving by Intercity STC either at Kwame Nkrumah Circle or Tudu terminals can find readily available taxis being operated by local unions directly from these terminals.

4. The case is the same for those arriving in buses operated by M-Plaza Travel and Tours.

5. Below are addresses and telephone numbers of transport companies/unions that may be very helpful to foreign students.
   Map 2 on page 6 is to guide foreign students to MUCG once they are able to locate Hansonic Junction on ‘A Guide map of Accra’ (Page 14-15).
   The supplementary maps on pages 22 and 23 are to help foreign students find their way around MUCG and its environs once they arrive on campus.

The Methodist University College Ghana is a multi-campus University College. Its main campus is located next to Wesley Grammar School at Dansoman in Accra. It has two satellite campuses in Tema and Wenchi. The former offers the same programmes of study as the Dansoman campus, while the latter hosts the Faculty of Agriculture.

Dansoman, where we have the main campus is located between Kaneshie and Mallam, off the Accra – Cape Coast Main Road. For easy location of MUCG’s main campus where you will find the main Administration, Faculties, Student’s accommodation and other facilities, please refer to the route map on page 6.
